

Privacy Rights Protection Policy

This policy is applicable for the collection, use, and protection of personal information on the SFIPC website. And this policy does not apply to any other website, which have their own data process policy, you reach via a link on SFIPC website. We are not responsible for any use of personal information by these websites

1. Online Complaint-Filling

You will be asked to supply personal identifiable information, such as your name, gender, telephone number, address, and email address when you submit complaints.

2. Contact Us

When you use the “contact us” function in the website. We need you to provide your name, telephone number and email address via which we can reply you.

We will not share your personal information with any other company or third party agency, except as permitted by law.

As technology advance, SFIPC may revise and update this privacy policy to better fulfill the protection of your privacy. You are deemed to be aware of any changes to the policy upon publication on our website. Should you have any opinion or suggestion, please contact us, we are more than happy to service you.